GAMEPLAY

Jigsaw has many traps and tricks in store for you. Detective Tapp must beat Jigsaw at his own games if he is going to survive. Here are some examples of the obstacles Detective Tapp will encounter on his way to Jigsaw.

FUSE BOXES

You will have to search for many different items to help you solve Jigsaw's puzzles. By collecting Fuses and inserting them into Fuse Boxes, Detective Tapp can restore electricity to certain objects, allowing him to turn on lights, open doors, or other possibilities.

LOCKPICKING

If Detective Tapp has a nail, he can attempt to lockpick certain doors. In order to successfully pick the lock of the door, he must rotate the tumblers so that all of the symbols match each other in the circle.

WEAPON CASES AND JIGSAW BOXES

Detective Tapp can open Weapon Cases and Jigsaw Boxes by arranging gears of various sizes on a machine board. If Detective Tapp can rig the board so that all of the gears are turning, then the crate or case will open. Weapon Cases will require Tapp to use some of the Gears he has collected in order to open them.

SHOTGUN DOORS

Jigsaw has rigged a number of doors with shotgun traps. When Detective Tapp is opening a door slowly, keep an eye out for the shotgun trap and press the corresponding button to disarm it before it goes off.

BOOBY TRAPS

A number of shotgun Booby Traps with tripwires have been set up all around the hospital, but luckily, Detective Tapp can disarm them. If he spots one in time, he can disarm it by looking at it and pressing the  button. If Tapp has a shotgun shell and a tripwire, he can set these traps on his own to surprise some of his adversaries.

COMBAT

In Jigsaw's game, it's kill or be killed. And many other people in the game with Detective Tapp also want to see him dead. Detective Tapp must find ways to defend himself if he wants to find Jigsaw.

ATTACKS

To attack, hold the D button to enter the combat stance. While in Combat Stance, you can attack with your fists or whatever weapon Tapp is currently holding. Press the A button to do a light attack and the X button to do a heavy attack, or hold the O button to block.

WEAPONS

Tapp will discover many different weapons he can use in Jigsaw's game. To pick up a weapon, stand near it and press the A button. Tapp will then use the weapon to attack in Combat Stance. You can drop the weapon at any time by pressing the AB button.

CHAIN ATTACKS

For some weapons, Tapp will be able to chain his attacks together to kill an enemy. When Tapp successfully hits an opponent with a weapon that can chain attacks, a circle will appear with a button onscreen. When the two moving weapon symbols overlap, press the corresponding button to attack again without giving your opponent a chance to react.
